

Advanced Rescue Technique
Website Instruction Document
March 17, 2015

1. Bring appropriate clothing for weather conditions. Inclement weather is a possibility. High temperatures, wind, and rain. Participants should be prepared for changing conditions.
2. No "Open Toe" shoes are permitted on rappel tower, or climbing wall.
3. Loose or baggie clothing must also be secured or tucked.
4. Long hair and bangs must be secured back, to prevent entanglements.
5. Any Medical conditions requiring special attention must be communicated to the ART rappel masters. (e.g. Insect Allergies, or seizure disorders)
6. Hydration is important, please bring water.
7. Participants will be in direct sunlight for several hours. Sunscreen should be worn.
8. Parking areas are near the LRC course and Rappel Tower. Camp Williams will provide instructions and a site map.
9. For safety purposes, it is the responsibility of the organization or group scheduling the event, to provide adequate ADULT supervision for participants under the age of 18.
10. It is the responsibility of the group leader or contact to communicate any special needs/requirements of participants prior to scheduled date.
11. ALL participants must complete a Camp Williams Liability Waiver before being allowed to use either the rappel tower, or climbing wall. Participants under the age of 18 must have a parent, or legal guardian sign for them.
12. For safety reasons observers are not allowed on the tower platform unless invited to do so by an ART rappel master. Anyone on the tower platform must be secured at all times.
13. If at any time conditions are deemed "unsafe" to operate the rappel tower or climbing wall, an ART rappel master will either suspend or cancel the activity.
14. ART is not responsible for vehicle damage, lost, or stolen items. Please follow all parking instructions, and keep valuables secured at all times.
15. While on base or at the rappel tower, all base regulations as well as ART safety instructions must be strictly adhered to. Failure to do so may result in a termination of the activity, and a forfeiture of the activity costs.
16. It is imperative that you allow enough time for check in, and on base travel. Each group is assigned a specific time slot, with another group to follow. If your group will be late, it is important that the group leader contact Camp Williams. Groups later than 30 minutes are subject to cancellation, and forfeiture of activity costs.
